IU Art Museum Terms and Conditions of Use

Any event held at the Indiana University Art Museum must be conducted in accordance with the following policies, procedures, and terms.

A. General Policies

1. Museum Use: All events are expected to harmonize with the character and mission of the IU Art Museum. Events may not create any hazard or impose any undue hardship on the IU Art Museum and its collections, facilities, staff, or visitors. Events must conform to established regulations and not interfere with IU Art Museum functions. The IU Art Museum reserves the right to refuse use to any individual or organization at its discretion. Typically, special events are held only during hours when the museum is not regularly open to the public.

2. Liability and Indemnity: The Licensee assumes the risk of all damage, loss, cost, or expense that may arise in the performance of this Agreement. Licensee, including its officers, directors, agents, employees, and affiliates, agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Licensor, its successors, assigns, directors, officers, employees, agents, and any other person for whom Licensor may be legally liable (“Indemnified Parties”), from and against any and all costs, expenses (including attorney’s fees), interest, losses, obligations, liabilities, or damages paid (“Losses”) which may accrue to or be incurred or sustained by the Indemnified Parties, and which arise out of or are in connection with or are for the purpose of avoiding any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, appeals, and proceedings (“Claims”), all whether groundless or not, or the settlement thereof, based on actual or alleged injuries, damages, or liability of any kind whatsoever, made or brought against the Indemnified Parties, sustained in connection with this Agreement, arising from any cause whatsoever except for gross negligence and willful misconduct of the Indemnified Parties. The Licensee further agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Claims for death or injury to persons or destruction of property in connection with or relating to any Claims by third parties, in tort, to the extent such Claims are based on acts, defaults, or neglects of the Licensee and/or any of its officers, agents, employees, guests or affiliates. Licensee further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Licensor and its employees from and against any and all liability, damage, loss, cost, or expense which may accrue to or be sustained by Licensee, Licensee’s guests, or Licensee’s subcontractors on account of any cancellation by the Indemnified Parties.

3. Damage to Premises: Licensee assumes liability for any and all damages sustained to the IU Art Museum building, premises, and collections during the performance of this Agreement. This shall include the interior of the building, as well as the Sculpture Terrace and other areas connected to the museum. If the premises, collections, or any portion of the Museum is damaged by the acts, omissions, or negligence of the Licensee or of Licensee’s agents, employees, guests, or other person admitted upon the premises by Licensee, Licensee will pay to Licensor upon demand such sum as shall be necessary to restore said premises to their present condition.

4. Force Majeure: Neither party shall be considered in breach of this agreement for failure to perform if such failure is caused by national or local calamity, acts of terrorism, the act or regulation of any public authority, labor difficulty or strike, war, epidemic, fire, storm, inclement weather or other act of God, or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the non-performing party that renders that party’s performance impossible.

5. Compliance with Applicable Laws and IU Policies: Licensee agrees to comply with all the laws of the United States, the State of Indiana, and all rules and policies of Indiana University and the IU Art Museum in the performance of this Agreement. Licensee will not do or cause to be done anything on the IU Art Museum premises in violation of such laws, rules, requirements or University policies.

Licensee’s Initials ______
6. IU Policy Concerning Programs Involving Children: Licensee acknowledges that the University has adopted a policy entitled Programs Involving Children (“Policy”). By executing this Agreement, Licensee is confirming that it has read and understands the Policy and that it accepts compliance with the Policy as an express condition of this Agreement. The Policy, along with additional resources and information concerning the Policy, may be found at: http://policies.iu.edu/policies/categories/administration-operations/public-safety-institutional-assurance/PS-01.shtml.

7. Guest Behavior: IU Art Museum reserves the right to eject, or cause to be ejected, any person or persons behaving in a destructive manner. IU Art Museum Management will not be liable to the Licensee or to Licensee’s guests for any damages that might be incurred in exercising this right.

8. Reservation and Deposit: No event will be scheduled with less than 30 days’ notice. Receipt and acceptance by the ME of a signed contract along with a deposit of $100 for non-IU-affiliated Licensees reserves the date and space for your event. Cancellations with less than 14 days’ notice will forfeit the $100 deposit. For IU affiliated events, a signed contract and provision of an IU account number for billing reserves the date and space for your event.

9. Capacity: The maximum number of people using the two floors of Atrium space for an IU-affiliated event, corporate conference, or other special event is 100 for a seated dinner and 350 for a standing reception, per fire code limitations.

B. Event Support Staff & Security

1. Event Support Staff: The IU Art Museum will assign an Event Support Staff person (ESS) to each event who will work closely with the Licensee to ensure that the event proceeds smoothly and efficiently. The presence of an IU Art Museum ESS is required for all activities related to the event including set-up, receipt of deliveries, the event itself, and tear-down.

2. Security: An IU Art Museum Safety & Security Officer is required to be present in each gallery and in the location of the event when in use by the public. The charge for this service is included in the rental fee structure. The provision of security services by the IU Art Museum is not intended to be, and shall not be construed to be, a guarantee of the safety or security of the premises and/or its occupants.

C. Catering and Other Third Party Service Providers

1. Third Party Service Providers: It is Licensee’s sole responsibility to make arrangements with and pay any third party vendor providing services for the event (caterer, bartender, musicians, or other service provider). It is Licensee’s responsibility to ensure that all third party service providers are informed of and comply with all of the Terms and Conditions herein set forth. Licensee agrees to provide Licensor with a copy of any contracts that Licensee enters into with any such third party service providers for the purposes of the event. Licensee also agrees to provide any third party service provider with a copy of this Agreement.

2. Catering & Alcohol Service: All caterers must be approved by both Indiana University and IU Art Museum management and possess all required licenses and permits for food service and the service of alcoholic beverages (if applicable). No other food or beverages may be brought by Licensee or Licensee’s guest to the event. The approved caterer must comply with all other IU policies regarding food service, including, but not limited to, completing the University Office of Environmental Health & Safety’s Temporary Food Service Application Application may be found at: http://www.ehs.indiana.edu/Food_Protect/Temporary%20Food%20Service%20Application.pdf. The caterer must provide all personnel, materials, and supplies required for the service of food and beverages (i.e. tablecloths, utensils, serving trays, etc.). The Licensee will be solely responsible for paying all catering and alcohol service costs.

Licensee’s Initials _____

No alcohol will be served at events organized by undergraduate student organizations or where the audience is likely to include people under the age of twenty-one.

Any caterer must carry commercial general liability insurance, including products, with minimum limits of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence. If alcohol is being served, the alcohol vendor/caterer must be approved by IU’s Office of Insurance, Loss Control & Claims and must carry insurance coverage, either as part of a general liability policy or as a separate policy, for dram shop operations with a minimum limit of $3,000,000. All insurance policies shall be with a company acceptable to Licensor and shall name “The Trustees of Indiana University, its officers, agents, and employees” as an additional insured. All certificates of insurance must be submitted at least 14 days prior to the event, to the IU Art Museum and the IU Office of Insurance, Loss Control & Claims at 400 E. 7th Street Room 705, Bloomington, IN 47405. A caterer’s failure to provide certificates of insurance or copies of any required license or permit may, in Licensor’s sole discretion, result in the cancellation of this Agreement, and Licensor shall not be responsible for any losses incurred by Licensee or Licensee’s subcontractors as a result of such cancellation.

3. No Cooking on Museum Premises: No food may be cooked upon the IU Art Museum premises. This includes portable electric stovetops. Sterno are allowed to keep food warm, but only two sterno are permitted per chafing dish.

4. Work Space: Prep areas are limited, but space is provided to caterers in Atrium hallways if needed. There is also kitchen space, with access to water and refrigeration on the 1st and 2nd floors. The second floor kitchen is part of the Angles Café & Gift Shop. During regular hours of museum operation, the use of these spaces, particularly the Angles kitchen, may be limited. The museum staff member on duty has the ultimate decision-making authority regarding the use of the Angles kitchen space and its equipment. At no time may the Licensee or the catering staff use supplies or materials available in the Angles kitchen, including but not limited to such items as ice, soda, cups, condiments and linens. If a caterer is found using these items, the Licensee will be held responsible for any replacement costs, and the caterer will be banned from future use of the Angles kitchen space. The only available equipment that may be used by catering staff in the Angles kitchen are the sinks, table/counter spaces (though no equipment may be moved), and trash/recycling cans (see also item #6).

5. Deliveries and Pick Ups: The Licensee will provide detailed information on any scheduled deliveries and pick-ups no later than 30 days prior to the event as part of the Event Plan. All deliveries must be approved by the IU Art Museum ME. Receipt of deliveries should be scheduled as a part of the set-up time, and will only be accepted on the day of the event. All external rental items, equipment and personal items of the Licensee or guests should be removed by the end of tear-down. Any exceptions to this rule must be approved in writing by the IU Art Museum ME.

The IU Art Museum reserves the right to refuse any delivery items that might prove detrimental to its facilities or collections. Organizations may not bring or caused to be delivered:
